Archives Internship Opportunities Program 2026

Description

The Archives Internship Opportunities Program 2026 offers passionate and dedicated students the chance to delve into the fascinating world of historical records and contribute to their preservation and accessibility. Interns will work with experienced archivists at various archives across the country, gaining valuable hands-on experience, developing professional skills, and making a real difference in protecting our shared history.

Responsibilities

- Assist with processing, arrangement, and description of archival materials.
- Conduct research and prepare finding aids to make collections accessible.
- Digitize historical documents and photographs.
- Contribute to outreach and public education programs.
- Participate in workshops and professional development opportunities.
- Assist with other duties as assigned, depending on the specific internship site.

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in an undergraduate or graduate program in history, library science, archival studies, or a related field.
- Strong academic record with a minimum GPA of 3.0.
- Excellent research, analytical, and organizational skills.
- Strong attention to detail and ability to work with fragile materials.
- Effective communication and teamwork skills.
- Willingness to learn and adapt to new tasks.

Experience

- Prior experience with archives or libraries preferred, but not required.
- Relevant coursework or volunteer experience in historical research, digitization, or related areas is a plus.

Skills

- Proficient in Microsoft Office Suite and other relevant software (e.g., archival management systems, image editing software).
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Time management and organizational skills.
- Strong problem-solving skills.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team.
- Positive attitude and strong work ethic.

Job Benefits

- Gain valuable hands-on experience and develop essential professional skills
