Smithsonian Internship Program 2026 Apply Now

Description

Embark on a transformative learning experience with the Smithsonian Institution, the world's largest museum complex. The Smithsonian Internship Program offers diverse opportunities across various museums and research centers, allowing you to contribute to groundbreaking research, engage with historical artifacts, and gain invaluable experience in a dynamic museum environment.

Responsibilities

- Assist with assigned projects and tasks aligned with your field of study, such as research, education, curatorial work, public outreach, or communications.
- Participate in meetings, presentations, and potentially even special events (as applicable).
- Learn and apply industry-specific knowledge and tools relevant to your chosen field.
- Contribute to a collaborative and professional work environment, interacting with experienced professionals and researchers.

Qualifications

- Enrolled in an accredited undergraduate or graduate program in a relevant field, such as history, art history, science, education, communications, or museum studies.
- Minimum GPA of 3.0 (or equivalent) is preferred.
- Strong work ethic, problem-solving skills, and a genuine passion for learning.
- Excellent communication, interpersonal, and teamwork skills.

Experience

- Prior internship experience in a museum or related setting (preferred but not required).
- Relevant coursework, research experience, or volunteer work in your field of interest.

Skills

- Proficient in Microsoft Office Suite (Word, Excel, PowerPoint).
- Strong research and analytical skills.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team.
- Attention to detail and excellent time management skills.

Job Benefits

- Gain valuable experience in the museum and cultural heritage field.
- Network with renowned professionals and build your resume.
